Cheney Lime and Cement

Job Description

Quarry Supervisor

This is a new position is due to growth

Responsibilities and Expectations:

- Direct activities of the quarry staff and oversee day-to-day operations of the stone plant to meet established business plans and mining plans.
- Lead, develop and train quarry production staff.
- Work with mining/geology consultant(s) to develop and execute long and short term mine plans.
- Ensure equipment is properly maintained and optimized.
- Perform routine inspections of work areas.
- Support maintenance activities to ensure that equipment safety, reliability and production requirements are achieved.
- Assist Quarry Manager, Plant Manager and Operations Manager as needed to ensure optimal efficiency.

Safety and Environmental Obligations

- Work with Safety Manager to enforce regulatory safety compliance & integrate company safety initiatives.
- Work with Safety Manager to ensure all permit and regulatory requirements are met and maintained.

Leadership and Development of Staff

- Be a positive leader that encourages cross-functional communication and collaboration.
- Ensure proper motivation of staff through coaching, delegation and follow up to suggestions and ideas.
- Recommend processes to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of stone plant production.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Supervisory experience in a quarry setting is required (3+ years).
- Experience in the mining industry (10 + years); preference to candidates in the lime industry.
- Ability to read and understand mine plans.
- Ability to safely operate heavy equipment.
- Strong safety compliance and safety orientation.
- High School Diploma or GED Equivalent required.
- Ability to work weekends and be available for call-outs when needed.
- Must be able to work outside in dusty environment with exposure to weather conditions.